QUALITY POLICY

WGE-POLICY-QUALITY-03 (9th May 2014)

Ref: ISO9001:2008 Quality Management System (Section 5.3)

The WGE Group is a group of companies specialising in a wide range of industrial and commercial construction and engineering disciplines.

At the WGE Group we believe that:

- Only the customer can define quality
- All personnel are responsible for quality
- Producing a quality product or providing a quality service returns human and economic benefits

The WGE Group is committed to:

- Maintaining a quality culture throughout the organisation
- Clearly identifying customer needs and requirements
- Providing a product or service that is predictable, uniform, reliable and fit for purpose, at the lowest possible cost
- Complying with all applicable rules, regulations, national and international standards
- Defining and reviewing quality objectives at management meetings
- Involving employees and subcontractors in continual improvement of work operations and work practices
- Reviewing and continually improving the effectiveness of the quality management system via audits and set meeting agenda's

The way in which this will be achieved is set out in the WGE Group Integrated Management System
